

- That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
- Indiana's law has been effective in keeping unwanted solicitors from taking quality time from my family.
- The State of Indiana doesn't need the FCC to try and fix something that's not broken.